Terry Smith is co-founder of M-POWERHOUSE of the Triangle Inc. The youth symposium's were created by co-founder Terry A. Smith and aspires to address the challenges of maintaining healthy behavior as it relates to participants and their communities at large. The educational and entertainment component will foster positive interaction and relationships with participating professionals in various fields. This will challenge our youth's Critical-thinking process and produce future healthy productive young adults.

Mr. Smith current and prior affiliations are:

- * Association Executives of North Carolina
- * Founder of Afro-Centric Issues and Social Concepts, Inc.
- * City Advisory Board Member for Mechanics and Farmers Bank
- * Advisor for the Durham North Carolina NAACP Youth and College Division
- * 2009 Co-Chair for Partnership for a Healthy Durham Violence and Injury Prevention Committee
- * Chairman and CEO of Wisdom, Work and Wealth, LLC.

M-PowerHouse was conceived by Medical Professionals to Unite Communities & to address the Educational, Economic & Health Factors that Impact Youth Violence.
